

Battle Creek Mill

In operation since 1948, the Battle Creek Mill is a chief North American manufacturer of Low Density Coated Recycled Board. Located in Battle Creek, Michigan, the mill is one of the few mills in the United States that produces a 100 percent recycled, Gravure quality sheet on a consistent basis.

177 Angell Street
Battle Creek, MI 49037
269-963-5511

Paul Wilson,
Vice President and General Manager

www.rocktenn.com

Capacity	160,000 annual tons
Caliper Range	14 – 24 point
Trim	129"
Min/Max Roll Data	Diameter: 59" – 72" Width: 18" – 63" Max. Weight: 5,000 lbs.
Core Size	12"
Sheet	Outsourced sheeting available

